JOURNAL'S BEAUTY EDITOR-AT-LARGE AND MAKE-UP ARTIST TO THE STARS SHARES SOME OF HER TOP BEAUTY TIPS AND REVEALS HER FAVOURITE PRODUCTS

IT'S A KIND OF MAGIC

Tony & Tina The Hair Wand in The Light, $15 (about £10.60); call 020-8398 5300 for stockists, or visit www.tonytina.com. This is a temporary colour you paint on to your hair – the perfect quick fix to cover root regrowth. I also use it round my hairline and at night to add gold highlights. All blondes should have one.

Blonde bombshell, Kate Moss

POUT, 32 Shelton Street, Covent Garden, London WC2 (020-7379 0379).

I love this new boudoir-style beauty store (below) because it has 'play stations' where you test products. My favourites are the sheer pink Pout Lipgloss in Pop My Bubble, £7, and fuchsia Pretty Pretty Nail Polish in Pussie Galore, £11.

LITTLE SMOOTHIE

Embryolisse Concentrated Creamy Lotion, 54FF-65FF (about £5-£6), from French pharmacies. I always have to bring loads of this back from Paris for friends. It's a great moisturiser for face and body, especially on dry elbows and knees, and perfect under make-up – I use it on models at all the shows. It can also be used as a gentle face cleanser.

CRYSTAL CLEAR

Crystal Eye Drops, £6.50, from D. R. Harris & Co Ltd Chemist and Perfumers, 29 St James's Street, London SW1 (020-7930 3915).

These drops are fantastic for blitzing red eyes.

They make the whites look really clean and sparkling and bring out the colour. Another useful tip: pour a little of the liquid in the lid, dip in a cotton bud and dot on to blemishes on the face. The redness instantly disappears.

CARD SHARP

Angel Power Meditation Cards, £8.95, from Mysteries, Neal Street, Covent Garden, London WC2 (020-7240 3688).

I – and lots of my celebrity clients – use these Angel Power cards to help meditate and gain daily guidance. Randomly picking out five or six cards each morning and reading the messages can lift energy levels, help solve problems and provide spiritual nourishment. More powerful than your daily horoscope.

BROWNEED OFF

Christian Dior Powder Eyeshadow & Eyeliner Palette in Beiges and Wood, £29. High eyebrows can make it difficult to create sultry, smoky eyes, but with this eyeshadow palette of five brown shades you'll get the look – and make your brows appear lower. Apply colours 2 and 3 over the eyelid and brow-bone area, then sweep colour 1 across the outer corner of the socket (as shown) and blend. Apply colour 5 in a line across lids, close to lashes, then a little under the lower lashes and at the outer corner, and blend with applicator. Highlight just under the outer end of the brow with colour 4.
