

FIONA JOLLY

If you're planning to be a social butterfly this season, Journal's Beauty Editor-At-Large has devised a priority pyramid made up of her favourite products. Only got five minutes to get ready? Concentrate on your complexion. 10 minutes? Build on the basics with quick and mistake-proof grooming tools. 20 minutes? Go for full-on glamour and luscious lips

5 MINUTES

 Apply Clarins Beauty Flash Balm, £21, over damp skin and it will leave you looking smooth and radiant all night.	 Mac Studio Fix Foundation, £17.50, is a powder foundation that quickly covers red areas and evens skin tone.	The best way to apply powder foundation in a hurry is with a brush. Try Trish McEvoy Brush 02B, £40. 	A quick slick of Mac Pro Lash in Coal Black, £7.50, will open eyes.

20 MINUTES

Chanel Double Perfection Fluide Matte Reflecting Makeup, £20, is easy to apply, and you only need a small amount to achieve a natural-looking complexion. 	A quick pat of Bobbi Brown Sheer Finish Pressed Powder in Sunny Beige, £18.50, will set foundation and make it last all night. 	Apply blusher high on the cheeks to give a fresh glow. Try Guerlain Divinora Radiant Blush in Rose Tendre, £22. 	Heat Screenface Eyelash Curlers, £3.95, with a hairdryer for a few seconds before using to give lashes extra curl. 	With a little more time you can go for a darker shade of lipstick, which needs careful application. Try Clarins Le Rouge Lipstick in Fusion, £13. 	Use Christian Dior DuoStyl Lèvres Lipcolor and Liner, £15, to ensure lipstick doesn't smudge. It also gives staying power.
